Interested In Other Cultures?

Global Pathways is looking for outstanding HOST FAMILIES!

Join us in sharing American culture with international students in the Global Pathways program at the University of Utah.

Some key points of our Host Family Program include:

- New students arrive at the beginning of each semester (August, January, and May)
- The typical length of stay is 4 weeks with the opportunity to extend upon approval by the host
- Hosts provide two meals a day (breakfast and dinner) and a clean room with a bed and desk
- Hosts live within a maximum 45-60 minute commute by public transportation to the University of Utah
- Global Pathways provides training, support, and compensation (Stipend of $550 per 4 weeks to cover expenses)

If you, your friends, or your family members are interested in learning more about becoming a host, please contact UtahPathways@Kaplan.com or call 801-587-9995.

We look forward to hearing from you!
